

101202 Dental Materials (2)

[2 cr., 1, 2] This is an advanced course in dental material science which concentrates on biocompatibility.

Lab: Selected dental materials are manipulated to enhance the student's application of the principles of restorative dental materials science (impressions, models, waxes, investments, casting alloys, ceramics, orthodontic wires, dental implants, bone augmentation...)