

101381 Dental Anesthesia and Extraction (1)

[3 cr., 2, 2 cl.] The course familiarizes students with dental local anesthesia, local anesthetic materials, equipment, chemistry, injection techniques, and management of the different complications that might arise after injections. A brief account of nerve physiology and anatomical considerations is also discussed.

