

101556 Oral Medicine (2) Clinical

[1 cr., 0, 2 cl.] Students are trained to examine patient attending the outpatient dental department in order to establish diagnosis and provide the appropriate treatment plan. They are also trained to examine patients with oral diseases and establish diagnosis, provide them with treatment after appropriate investigations. Experience in emergency dentistry, Follow up for such cases is also required

