

101571 Dental Pediatric (2)

[3 cr., 2, 3 cl.] Special emphasis is given to management of behaviorally difficult patients. The course concentrates on theoretical knowledge needed to assess need and provide appropriate treatment for pediatric patients with carious, pulpally involved and traumatized teeth with special emphasis on making children at ease in the dental chair.

Instruction in clinical techniques in paediatric dentistry & orthodontics. Patients are allocated for clinical examination, case analysis & treatment. studies concentrate on dental care of children with physical, mental and emotional disabilities.

Clinic: Study of the diagnosis, treatment planning, and comprehensive preventive and restorative dental treatment for children.