

201123 Organic Chemistry

[2 cr., 2, 0] A study of fundamental principles of organic chemistry with emphasis on underlying concepts. A survey of organic chemistry, which includes a general treatment of the mechanisms of organic reactions, resonance theory, the molecular orbital theory, the physiochemical basis of synthetic reactions, and an introduction to spectroscopy.

