

403452 E-Commerce

[3 cr., 3, 0] Overview of Electronic Commerce and relevant terminology, Comparison of traditional approaches to business automation (eg EDI) with Internet-based approaches. Analysis of the types of e-commerce: Business-to-business and business-to-consumer, an overview of relevant networking technology, and an overview of the infrastructures for supporting e-commerce technologies, including network and software architectures, delivery protocols and security issues. Evolving e-commerce models and related infrastructures, together with future developments in these areas. Electronic payment systems (EPS), legal and ethical issues and future trends.