

502312 Cost Accounting (2)

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course discusses standard costing system and analysis of variance in more depth. It covers inventory cost methods and their effect on income statements (Absorption and Variable, Break-even point analysis, capital budgeting and the alternative effects on taxable income), performance measurement methods of various departments based on the departmental cost analysis, linear programming as well as computer applications.

