

502362 Governmental & non profit Organization Accounting

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course introduces the theory and concepts underlying financial accounting, control, and reporting in governmental and non-profit organizations. Free concepts and principles will be illustrated by comparing the practices of selected non-profit organizations, including governmental units and universities, with authoritative standards.

