

502373 Financial Reporting & Statement Analysis

[3 cr., 3, 0] The course covers the approaches and methods used in analysing financial statements for corporations. Those statements include: Income-statement, Balance sheet and statement of cash flows.

The analysis aims to measure and appraise the entities performance with regard to; profitability, liquidity and capital structure. The course presents also some techniques used in credit analysis and in forecasting financial failure.

