

502432 International Accounting

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course discusses the unique aspects of accounting for multinational corporations. It covers the accounting principles and financial reporting practices in different countries, development of international accounting and auditing standards, and foreign currency translation.

