

502434 Financial Institutions Accounting

[3 cr., 3, 0] The course will familiarize student with two important sectors of the economy which they are banks and insurance sectors. The accounting systems of banks and insurance companies and its differences from after systems of trading, manufacturing, and service entities, and prepare students to have a career in such financial institutions.

