

502437 Accounting for Services Entities

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course provides key measures on the performance and characteristics of the Accounting for Services industry, In order to identify the nature and structure of the industry in terms of employment, income, expenses and its contribution to the national economy.

