

504311 International Finance

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course is designed to introduce an overview of Environment of global finance, international dimension of corporate finance, balance of payments and exchange market, international monetary system, political risk, international cash management, international portfolio diversification, foreign direct investment and international, and other developmental international financial issues.

