

504413 International Commerce

[3 cr., 3, 0] It includes the study of international trade theories: absolute and comparative advantages, Heckscher – Ohlin model; theory of tariffs, arguments for protection commercial policy instruments, customs union; foreign exchange market, balance of payments , fiscal and monetary policies; and international monetary system.

