

504472 Public Finance

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course develops an understanding of the economic basis for government activities. The course focuses on issues such as efficiency, market failure, externalities, public good, public choice and benefit cost analysis. Principles of government finance and public policy debates are discussed. Special consideration is given to taxation, public expenditure, public debt, and fiscal administration.

