

506411 Web Sites Design & Managements

[3 cr., 3, 0] This course introduces general principles, methodologies, and tools used to develop professional web sites. The course covers creation of web pages, Hyperlinks, tables, forms, using graphics, images, databases, cascading style sheets, web testing and publishing, Labs include using Microsoft FrontPage 2000, Microsoft Photo Editor 2000, Dynamic HTML, JavaScript programming, and other web authoring and programming tools.

