

701371 Infection Control

[1 cr., 1, 0] Theory in infection control in the dental hygiene practice, including responsibility for infection control practices, transmission of disease and methods for preventing disease transmission for the hygienist and patient.

Emphasis on infection control and disinfection techniques for patient and personal protection; disease transmission, microbiology, and application of OSHA and Infection Control guidelines and oral hygiene, periodontal disease, and preventative products.

