

702221 Community Medicine and Forensic Dentistry

[2 cr., 2, 0] Community Medicine The goals of the course are to ensure that students use epidemiological indices to describe the prevalence and incidence of dental diseases in a specified population; evaluate scientific literature in terms of study design, sampling, and data analysis methods; plan, implement and evaluate community-based preventive dental programs for target populations; and apply motivational and instructional techniques regarding patient dental education through community field experiences.

Forensic Dentistry: The application of dentistry to legal problems and, in the interests of justice, deals with the proper examination, handling and presentation of dental evidence in a court of law (identification and comparison of bite marks , identification of bite marks in other substances such as wood, leather and foodstuffs, identification of unknown bodies through dental records, and age estimations of skeletal remains. Understand dental jurisprudence and dental record keep in.

INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY FOR SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

الجامعة الدولية الخاصة للعلوم والتكنولوجيا

