

702301 Dermatology, Ophthalmology and Otorhinolaryncology

[2 cr., 2, 0] The subject comprises a basic knowledge of general dermatology at the level necessary for a dental student also; this course was extended to include basic science fields of anatomy, physiology, etiology, symptoms and signs of major disease processes of the skin, eye, nose, ear and throat

